CORINTHIANS

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Rationale

We believe children thrive in a caring, secure environment where they are valued as individuals whilst caring for others within the school community. Through praise and encouragement, we aim to provide positive, consistent guidance for children as they develop self awareness and responsibility for their own actions, creating secure foundations for future happiness and well being. Christian principles of 'treating others as we would wish to be treated', is central to the ethos of our schools and is at the heart of how good behaviour is nurtured.

- A verbal reprimand and reminder of the rule that has been broken.
- Time out sitting away from others for a set period of time.
- Standing away from others at playtime for set period of time.
- Miss playtime, or other activities as appropriate. Finish any work if necessary.
- Write the rule that has been broken.

Frequent and persistent poor behaviour will result in the child being monitored in close cooperation with parents. A Behaviour Book or chart may be used to record progress or further incidents. An Individual Behaviour Plan will be devised and discussed with parents. Incident forms will be completed and all staff including Teaching Assistants and Mid-Day Supervisors will be informed of the situation to ensure consistency of approach.

In some cases it may be appropriate to seek external advice.

In cases of persistently poor behaviour or in the event of a serious incident a child may be temporarily excluded for a set period of days or lunchtimes. Permanent exclusion would only be considered in extreme cases after all other
