

Class 2's science has been about how steam can cause things to happen. We have watched a kettle boil and listened to the whistle! We also carried out an experiment where red (coloured) hot water went into a beaker of cold water that was put on top of it because heat rises.

In PE we have been working on the apparatus.

