

Class 3 have been investigating tooth decay using egg shells. We are trying to find out which liquid has the largest effect on the health of our teeth. The results are yet to be confirmed!

