

Infant Class Autumn Week 6

This week in the Infant class, we have been enjoying all things autumnal, including books celebrating the changing seasons.

This follows on from the success of our scarecrow making day last week. We all had great fun designing and creating our characters.

