

Nadiya Hussain Interview

Holly: Who are your food heroes?

Nadiya: Well, I've already met two of them doing the Great British Bake Off! Mary and Paul! I've always been a fan of Rick Stein and Nigel Slater.

Holly: How did it feel to be on the bake off?

Nadiya: It was really nerve-racking but it has changed my life forever. In the blink of an eye I was in the final! I still can't believe I won. My husband handed me the application form.

Holly: Are you going to write another book?

Nadiya: Yes, definitely! I adore writing cookery books and fiction stories. At the moment, I am writing my second novel about me and my sisters.

Holly: How does baking make you feel?

Nadiya: Baking makes me feel really happy because I know it will make other people happy when they eat my food! I also love baking with my children and trying out new recipes. Baking can be relaxing.

Holly: Do your children like to help you cook?

Nadiya: Yes they do like to help me with the baking and cooking. It's a really fun thing to do together!
